Insurrection News.

Augusta, Ga., August 20.—All quiet, but arrests still continue. Morris and Harris, the ring leaders in the content plated insurrection are still at large. It is believed that there will be no further trouble. The negroes here have disper-sed and are returning to their homes.

Augusta, (i.a., August 20.—A dispatch from Sandersville, Washington county, reports the arrest of Candia Harris, one of the leaders of the plot. He has made a confession, implicating Prince Rivers, Major General of the South Carolina militia. Rivers emphatically denies the charge. There are 70 negroes in jail at Sandersville. Gov. Smith is expected there to night.

Death of Rear Admiral Collins.

Washington, August 20.—A telegram received at the Navy Department this morning from Capi. Simpson, commanding the United States steamer Omalas, glated Panama, August 19, announces the death of Rear Admiral Napoleon Collins, commanding the South Pacific deet, which occurred at Calao on the 9th inst. He died of crysipelas after an illness of three days, and was buried with military honora in the Protestant cemetery at Belle Usta, near Calao.

Rear Admiral Reed Werden has been ordered to command the South Pacific Station in the place of Rear Admiral Collins, and until his arrival there the command will devolve on Capt. Simpton. The death of Rear Admiral Collins promotes Commodore Stephen D. Frenchard, but does not effect any officer below that grade as there has been an excess of one in the list of Commodores for some months past on account of the reinstatement of Commodore Johnson Beaumont by Comgress last session. The law allows but twenty-five officers of the grade of Commodore.

FOREIGN NEWS.

THE HEBZEGOVINIA INSUBRECTION.

COSSTANTINOPLE, August 20.—Later intelligence from the insurrection in Herzegovinia, is satisfactory. The Government of the Province announces that there is less excitement among the people than there has been for some days, and anticipates a prompt pacification. The Russian, Austrian and German Embassadors had a protracted conference with the Grand Vizier yesterday. It is understood they advised the suspension of the hostilites, with the view to afford an opportunity for ascertaining the grievances of the Insurgents. Turkey declined to accede to this proposition. The Russian Ambassador had an interview with the Sultan, and afterwards with the with the Sultan, and afterwards with the Grand Vizier. Washington, D. C., Angust 21—1.A. M.,
For New England, the Middle and South Atlantic States, warm and clear or a fair weather, with southerly to westerly winds and a rising harometer, followed by easterly to southerly winds, a falling barometer and rain in the southern portion of the South Atlantic States.

For the Gulf States, Tennessee and the Ohio Valley, warmer and clear or fair weather in the interior, and light rains near the coast, with southeast to southwest winds and falling barometer.

For the Lake Region, couler and clear or parly cloudy weather, with southwest to morthwest winds, rising followed by falling barometer and rains near Lakes Huron and Superior.

For the Upper Mississippi and Lower Missurir Valleys, partly cloudy weather, and continued low temperature, with variable winds, mostly from north and rising followed by falling barometer.

The Ohio and Mississippi vilers at Memphis and stations above will continue to fall. The Mississippi will probably rise at Vicksburg and Helena.
